Story 1:

[Tip: Mark the initial camera position.] Once upon a time, there was a _______ boy/girl____ named _______________. [To start, he/she is standing beside some trees, looking away from the camera. He/she turns, waves, and introduces himself/herself.]

He/she walks toward us and says, “I can do magic! Would you like to see?”

[Interactive part of the story] If we say no, he/she gets a bit huffy, thinks that we are “no fun” and leaves. If we say yes, a magic wand magically appears. He/she raises an arm waving the wand, and the tree(s) ____________________________________________.

[If time allows, add additional scenery to the animation or additional action/dialog to the story.]
